Lakewood Station

Lakewood Station includes a side platform for passengers, as well as shelters and ticket kiosks. A new parking garage near the station provides more than 600 parking spaces for commuters. The station serves as a bus transit facility for regional and local bus service and provides Sounder commuter rail service.

Mode
Commuter rail, bus

Highlights
Start of service:
Bus: opened for service September 2008
Sounder: service began 2012

Location: Adjacent to Pacific Highway Southwest near 47th Avenue Southwest

Budget: $32.9 million

Funding partners: Sound Transit, Federal Transit Administration, City of Lakewood, Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT)

Planning partners: Pierce Transit, BNSF, Tacoma Rail

Consultants & contractors
Environmental review: BERGER/ABAM
Preliminary engineering and final design: KPFF Consulting Engineers Inc
Construction management: URS Corporation
Construction: PCL Construction Services

Public art
The three intertwining spheres of "Transpire" create a radiant and elegant design inspired by the early history of settlement in the Lakewood area. The artist is Mark Calderon.